Writer and photographer Lori Szepelak has planned a spirit-filled program titled “A Message of Love Through Photographs” on Jan. 22 from 1-2 p.m. at Master the Possibilities.

Originally from Western Massachusetts, she now resides in Ocala. Lori spent her career working in the newspaper field, as well as in public relations.

Lori is the author of three books, An Angel on My Shoulder, Floors of the Forest, and her most recent, Visits with Mom: A Journey Through Time and Beyond.

Her presentation chronicles her spiritual journey that promises an uplifting message of faith ... hope ... love... and angels!

In “An Angel on My Shoulder,” Lori details how a message from the angelic realm inspired her to write her first book, and explains how we can all make a connection with a loved one who has passed or with our angels through photography.

In “Floors of the Forest,” Lori explains how each of us can help Mother Earth by working with the angelic realm.

In “Visits with Mom,” her most beloved book, Lori shares insights on how all of us can make lasting memories while our mothers are still with us - as well as how to reach out and connect with our mothers who have passed over.

“Moms are amazing and whenever I present this program, everyone enjoys sharing their special memory about their mom too,” said Lori. “I promise you this time we spend together will be filled with so much joy and especially love.”

At the end of her presentation, Lori will explain how each of us can experience our own journey with the angels that surround us.

Note: This presentation has also been recorded on video for persons who wish to watch it in the comfort of their own home.
