

Carla Traudt

By the time Carla Traudt had graduated from high school, in 1964, she had traveled the country twice, hiked to the bottom of the Grand Canyon, hiked the Pacific Crest Trail from Mt. Whitney to Half Dome, met the famous photographer Ansel Adams in Yosemite, watched the sunrise from Acadia National Park, and camped in the dunes of the Cape. In 1962, she was stepped on by a bear and her cub while sleeping in the backcountry of Yellowstone. She has since had a love affair with all of America's National Parks & Historic Sites. Carla has worked in Yellowstone & Crater Lake for the last twelve summers. Come hear her stories.

Everything Yellowstone Wednesday, January 20, 10:30 a.m.-12 p.m.

Let's explore the history, the legends, the wild, and the science of Yellowstone National Park. Yellowstone is our first National Park designated March 1st, 1872 "For the benefit and enjoyment of all." Carla's first visit was in 1962 and in 2019, she finished her 10th year living and working in Yellowstone. Carla is a "Certified Interpretive Guide" specializing in Yellowstone. Please join the discussion. Information, fun facts, and photos abound.

Older and Bolder: Seniors Volunteering and Working in State and National Parks Wednesday, February 22, 10:30 a.m.-12 p.m.

Always wanted a awesome backyard? Do you like to sit around the campfire toasting s'mores with new friends? Enjoy interacting with visitors helping them have an experience they will remember the rest of their lives? Find out what it is like behind the scenes of our national and state parks and how you can be part of the staff that supports our parks.

World War II Internment Camps Wednesday, April 12, 10:30 a.m.-12 p.m.

During World War II, many U.S. citizens of Japanese descent were relocated to one of eleven Internment Camps. This class will explore what prompted the relocation of thousands, who was chosen, what was it like in these camps, and what happened when these camps were closed. Personal photos, historic video, and the son of two internees will provide an insight into the life in these camps. Please note: This is not a political discussion.
